Business accomplishments (awards, leadership, and management positions)	As above
Business qualifications (non real estate related background and experience)	17 years in investment Banking working in Europe,Asia,Africa and the Middle East.
In your opinion, what community issues should ORRA be addressing?	Affordable Housing
In your opinion, what are the greatest challenges facing the industry today that ORRA should be addressing?	Changing nature of the business and how members need to adopt to it. Higher entry qualifications for real estate license.
What is your position on the issues of property taxes, insurance, and private property rights?	Voters need more control on how they are spent. P Property rights....Not really an issue
If elected, what would you like to have accomplished by the end of your term?	Promotion of ORRA to other organizations I am in leadership role with.

You will be expected and/or required to attend the following meetings and functions listed below.

- Monthly ORRA Board of Director meetings - one per month, plus preparation and reading time.
- Special board meetings - Although rare, can occur on short notice and can run two to three hours.
- Grievance/ethics/arbitration appeal panels – two to four occurrences, each running about one hour.
- Membership meetings and events – multiple membership luncheons and events, one inaugural event, Great American REALTOR® Days visit to Tallahassee, one awards event, RPAC auction.
- State association meetings – one three-day meeting in January and one three-day meeting in August. These meetings are especially important if you are appointed a state director.
- Various meetings – committees, task forces, work groups, etc.
- Planning and training sessions (required) – one annual leadership training session and one strategic planning retreat (if held).
- Community commitment.

Will you make this commitment?

Yes

To my knowledge, the above information is true, correct, and complete.
